

Dear Hiring Team at VOLMI,

I am writing to express my interest in the Unity Developer position as advertised. With over 2 years of professional game development experience and a solid foundation in Unity and C# programming, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to your studio's commitment to creating robust and high-performing game features.

I am proactive, always looking for innovative solutions to complex tasks, and my collaborative nature makes me a valuable team player who can contribute to the technical backlog and drive critical decision-making processes. Furthermore, my intermediate level of English facilitates effective communication within international and diverse teams.

I am eager to bring my background in game design, expertise in Unity development, and enthusiasm for creating impactful games to your esteemed studio. Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of contributing to your team and further discussing how I can assist in achieving your studio's ambitious goals.

Warm regards,

Leandro Magonza Giummarra
